Disclosure and agreement: Your account will be debited for the fees associated with this wire transfer request. If the wire is cleared through the Federal Reserve, Regulation J governs the transaction. The cut-off time for wires will be 1:00pm on each business day. If you give the Credit Union a payment order which identifies the beneficiary/recipient of the funds, by both name and identifying account number, payment may be made by the beneficiary's financial institution based on the identifying account number, even if the number identifies a person different than the named beneficiary. This means that the Credit Union is not liable for incomplete funds transfer based on the information you provided. If you give the Credit Union a payment order which identifies an intermediary or beneficiary's financial institution by both name and an identifying number, a receiving financial institution may rely on the number as the proper identification even if it identifies a different person at the named bank. You agree that the credit union will not be responsible for any loss, or expenses incurred resulting from inaccurate or incomplete information you provided to execute or attempt to execute the wire transfer. You agree that any incomplete, inaccurate or illegible information may result in non-transfer of funds, and you may incur a cost as a result.
